

LOS ANGELES

Daily Journal

www.dailyjournal.com

INSURANCE: Inhibiting insurance companies' use of a release as a settlement device goes against public policy. By Deborah L. Stein of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett, PAGE 5

CRIMINAL: Staying informed about victims' rights benefits both the victims and the criminal justice system. By Los Angeles attorney Antonio R. Sarabia II, PAGE 6

TAXATION: Lawyers would be wise to adopt gross fee contracts when dealing with their clients. By Robert W. Wood of Wood & Porter, PAGE 7

VOL. 123 NO. 203

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2010

© 2010 Daily Journal Corporation. All Rights Reserved

San Diego Lawyers Hit the Green

Courtesy of the San Diego County Bar Association

The San Diego County Bar Association held its annual Golf Tournament on Oct. 11, with over 100 players in attendance at the Riverwalk Golf Club in San Diego.

Pictured above, from left, is the first place team: Dan Kehr, Ryan Frank, Marco Sanchez and Adrian Reyes. In addition to bragging rights, each player was awarded a crystal golf ball trophy and the team name will be added to the SDCBA's perpetual Golf Tournament trophy. Players enjoyed a 19th Hole awards reception and prize drawing.

The tournament is a fund raiser for the San Diego County Bar Foundation.